

PHRASAL VERB “FIREWORKS”

Learn 100+
phrasal verbs

Practice with quizzes

Learn even more
in our course!

away

down

into

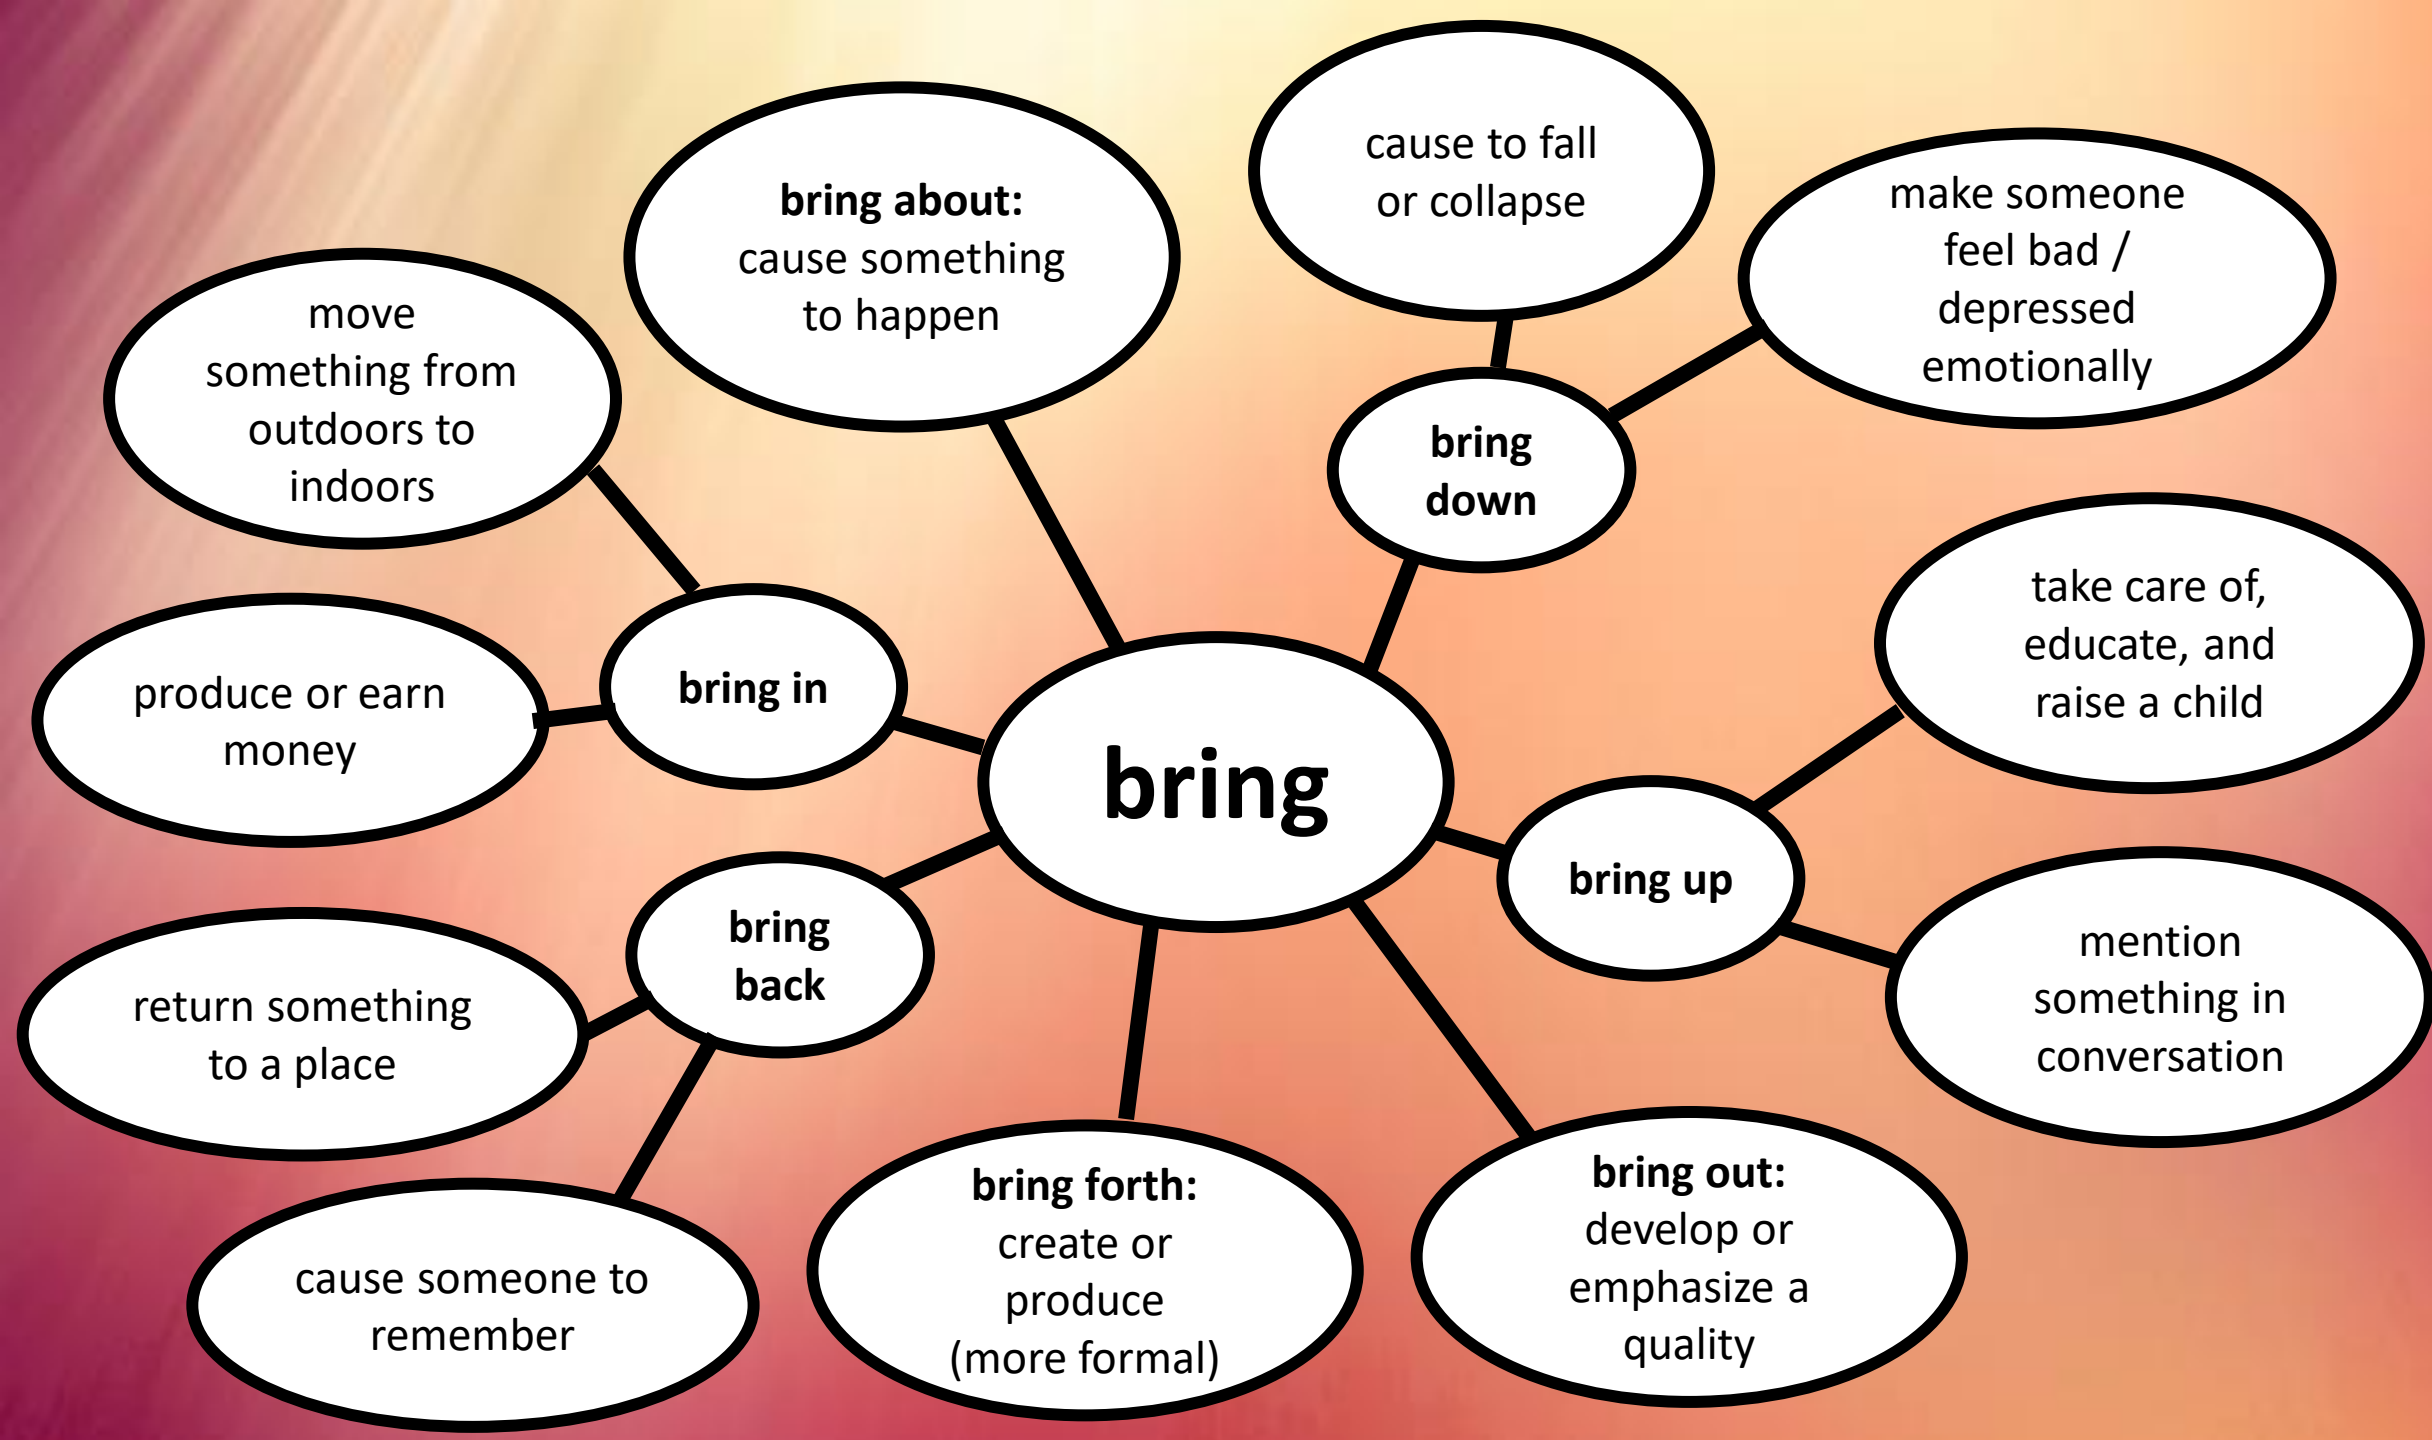

off

out (x3)

through

up (x2)

1. Someone broke _____ our house during our vacation.
2. You got promoted – let's break _____ the champagne!
3. I finally managed to break _____ my limiting beliefs.
4. My car broke _____ and couldn't be repaired.
5. She recently broke _____ with her boyfriend of 2 years.
6. One of the legs broke _____ of my favorite chair.
7. He broke _____ the chocolate bar for the kids.
8. I use makeup whenever my forehead breaks _____.
9. One runner broke _____ from the pack and took the lead.
10. There's a hole in the fence and the dogs are breaking _____!

about

back (x2)

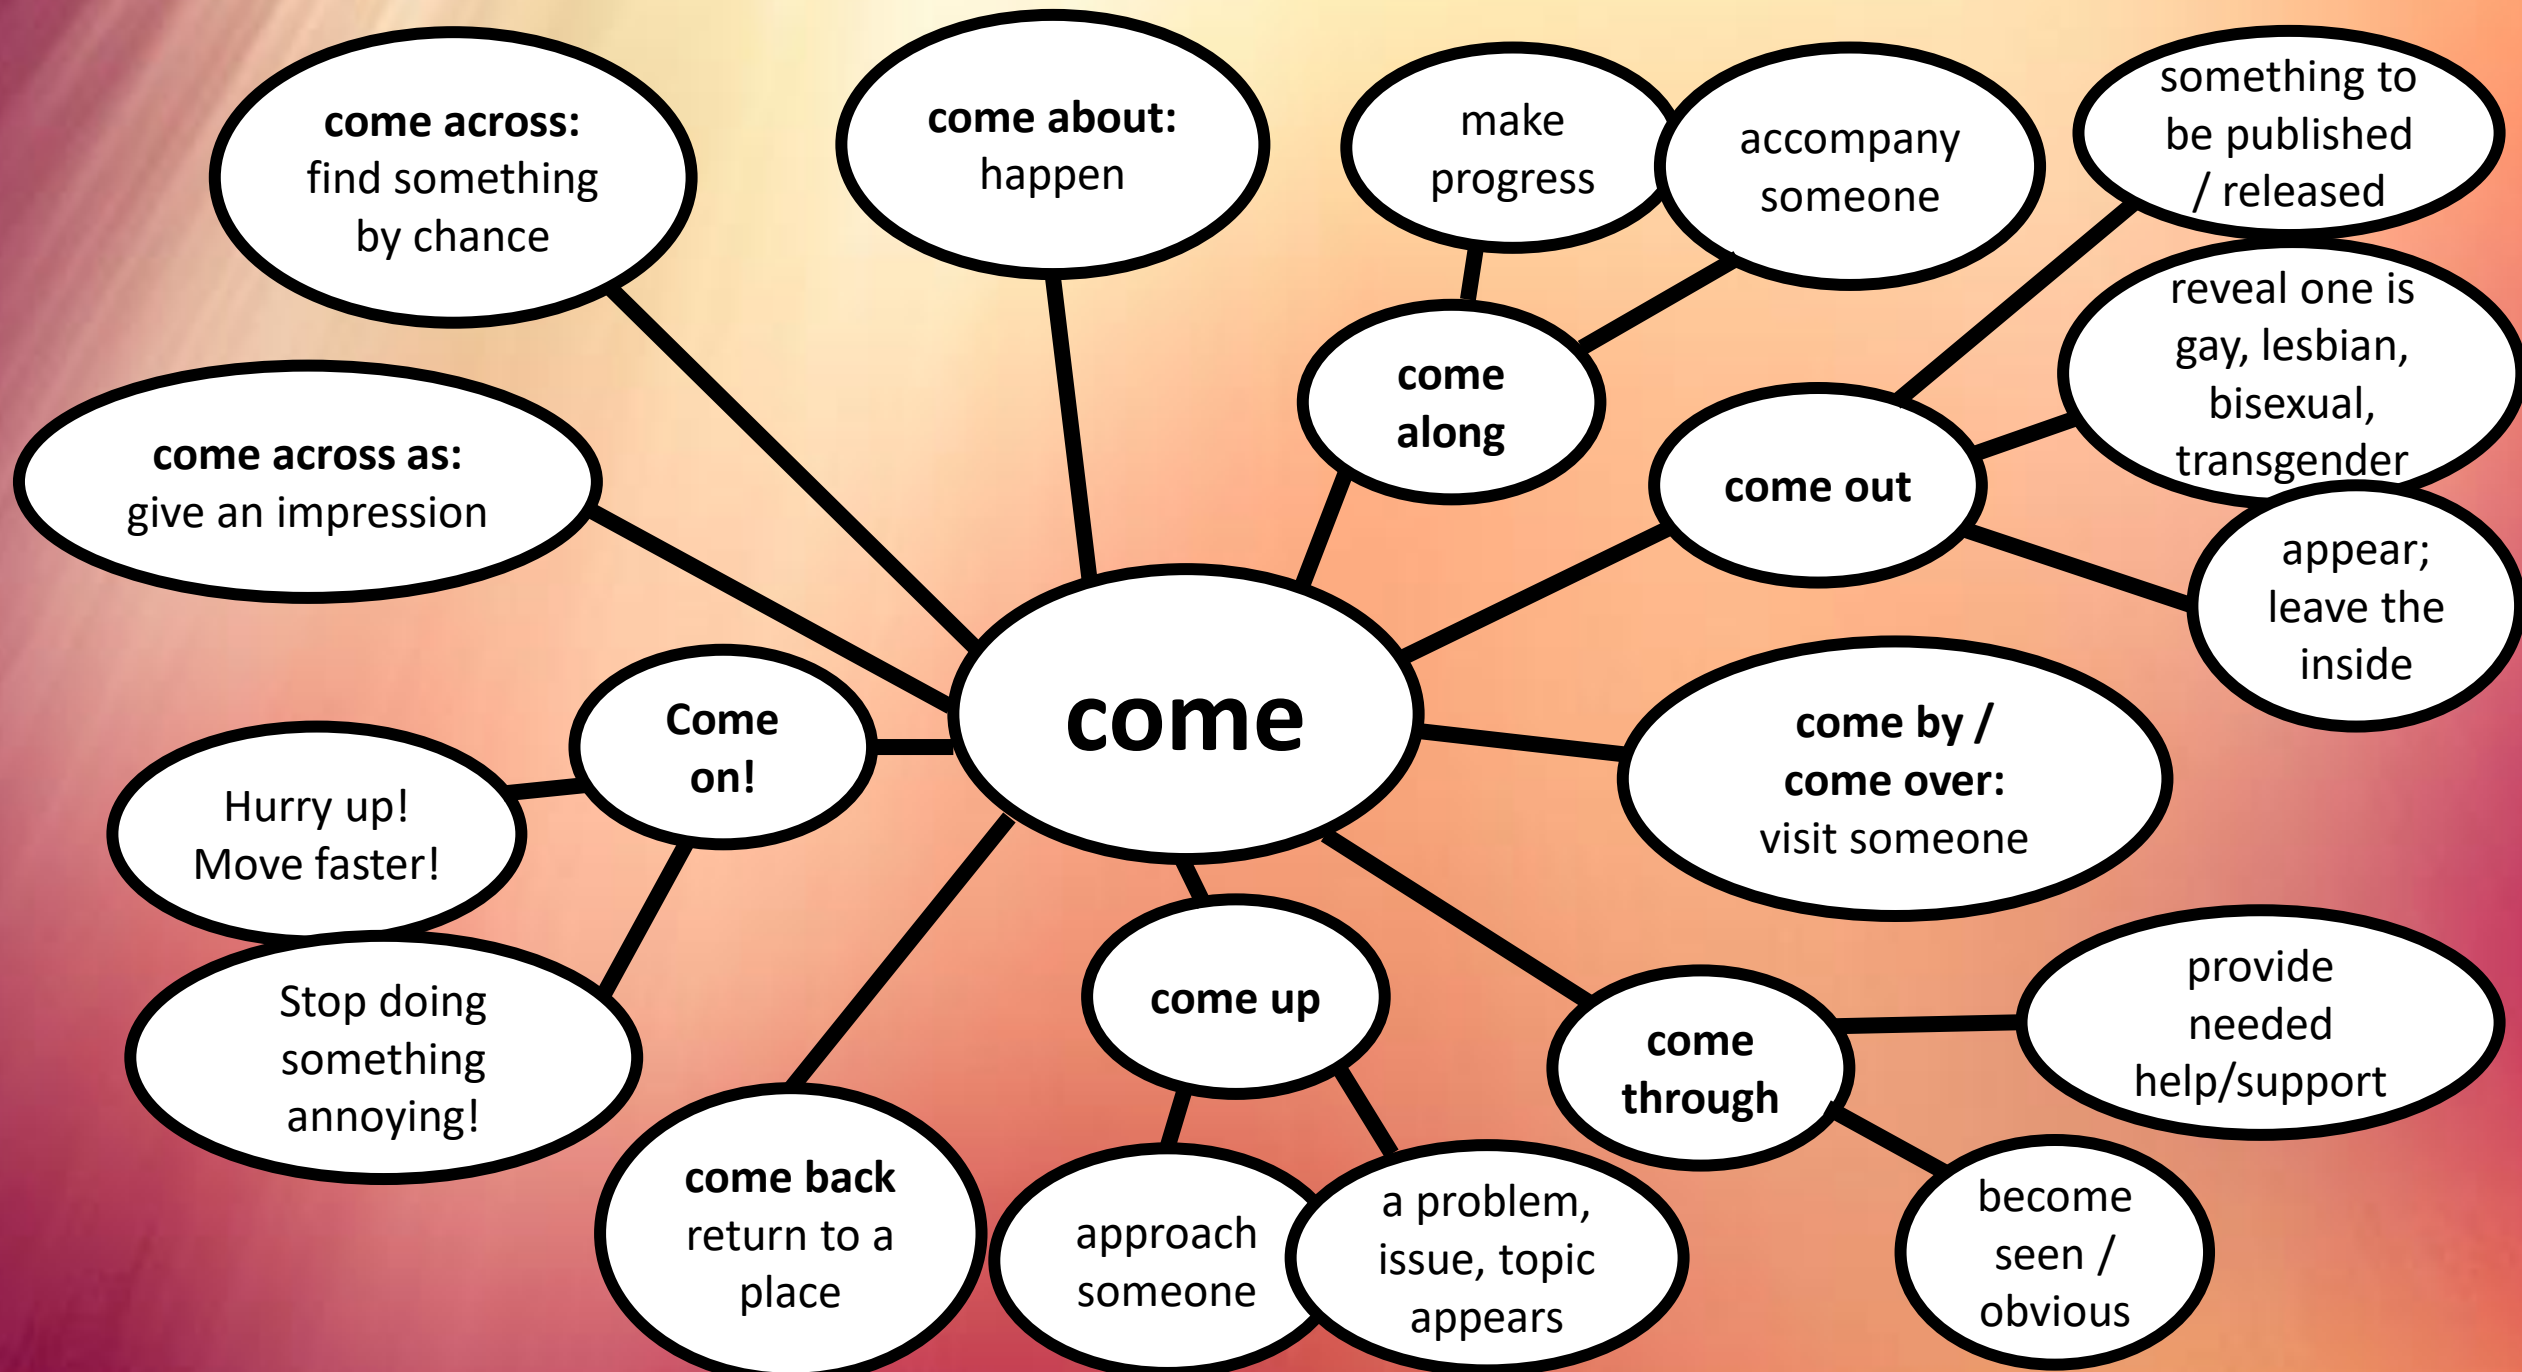

down (x2)

in (x2)

out

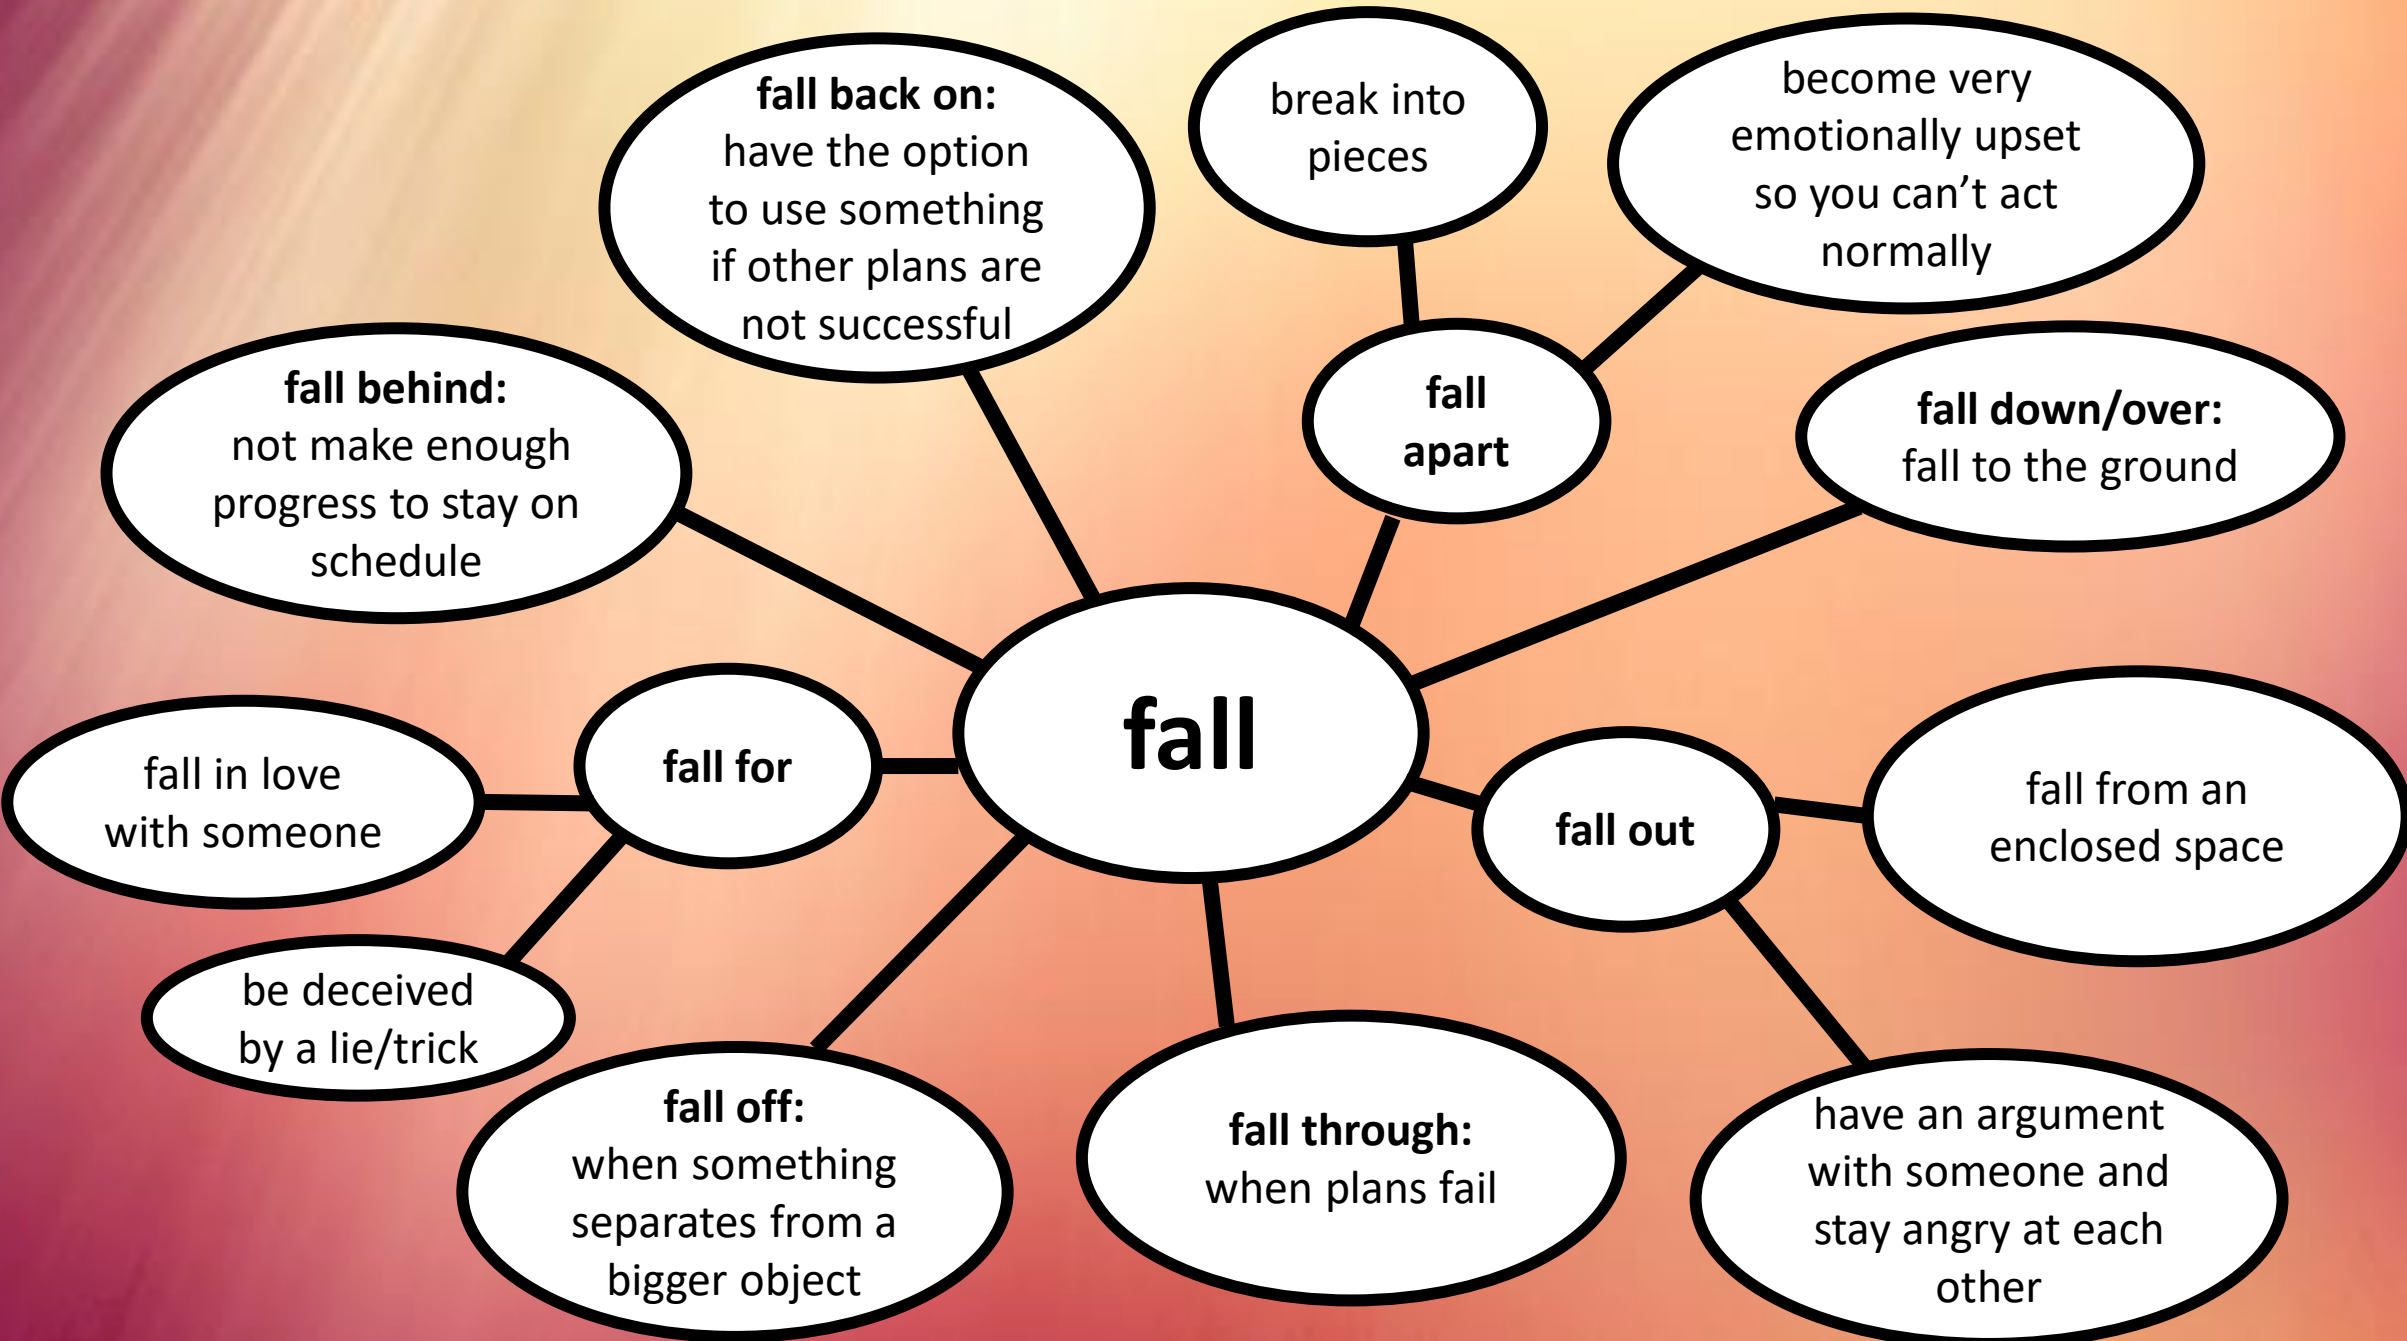

up (x2)

1. All this rainy weather is really bringing me _____.
2. The protesters want to bring _____ changes in the laws.
3. They have busy lives, working full-time and bringing _____ five children.
4. We need to bring the library books _____ next week.
5. Please bring the groceries _____ from the car.
6. Don't bring _____ politics at dinner; it'll cause an argument.
7. The rebels are trying to bring _____ the country's government.
8. That blue shirt really brings _____ the color of your eyes.
9. Wow, this song really brings me _____ to high school!
10. I do freelance work to bring _____ a little extra income.

across	along (x2)	back	on out (x2)	over	through (x2)	up (x2)

1. He tries to hide his anger, but it comes _____ in his tone of voice.
2. My skating skills are really coming _____ now that I'm taking classes.
3. We're going to the bar, do you want to come _____?
4. The cat is hiding under the couch and doesn't want to come _____.
5. Something came _____ and I had to reschedule the meeting.
6. We invited a friend to come _____ and watch the game at our house.
7. I came _____ someone's lost wallet in the church parking lot.
8. My friends really came _____ by bringing me meals after my surgery.
9. In that city, people often come _____ to me asking for money.
10. It was nice to come _____ to my own country after a long, tiring trip.
11. Come _____, we're going to be late!
12. I can't wait for the next book in the series to come _____.

fall

fall back on:
have the option
to use something if other plans are not successful break into pieces

become very emotionally upset
so you can't act normally

fall
apart

fall down/over:
fall to the ground

fall behind:
not make enough
progress to stay on schedule

fall from an enclosed space

fall out

have an argument with someone and stay angry at each other

fall through:
when plans fail

fall off:
when something separates from a bigger object

fall for fall in love with someone

be deceived
by a lie/trick

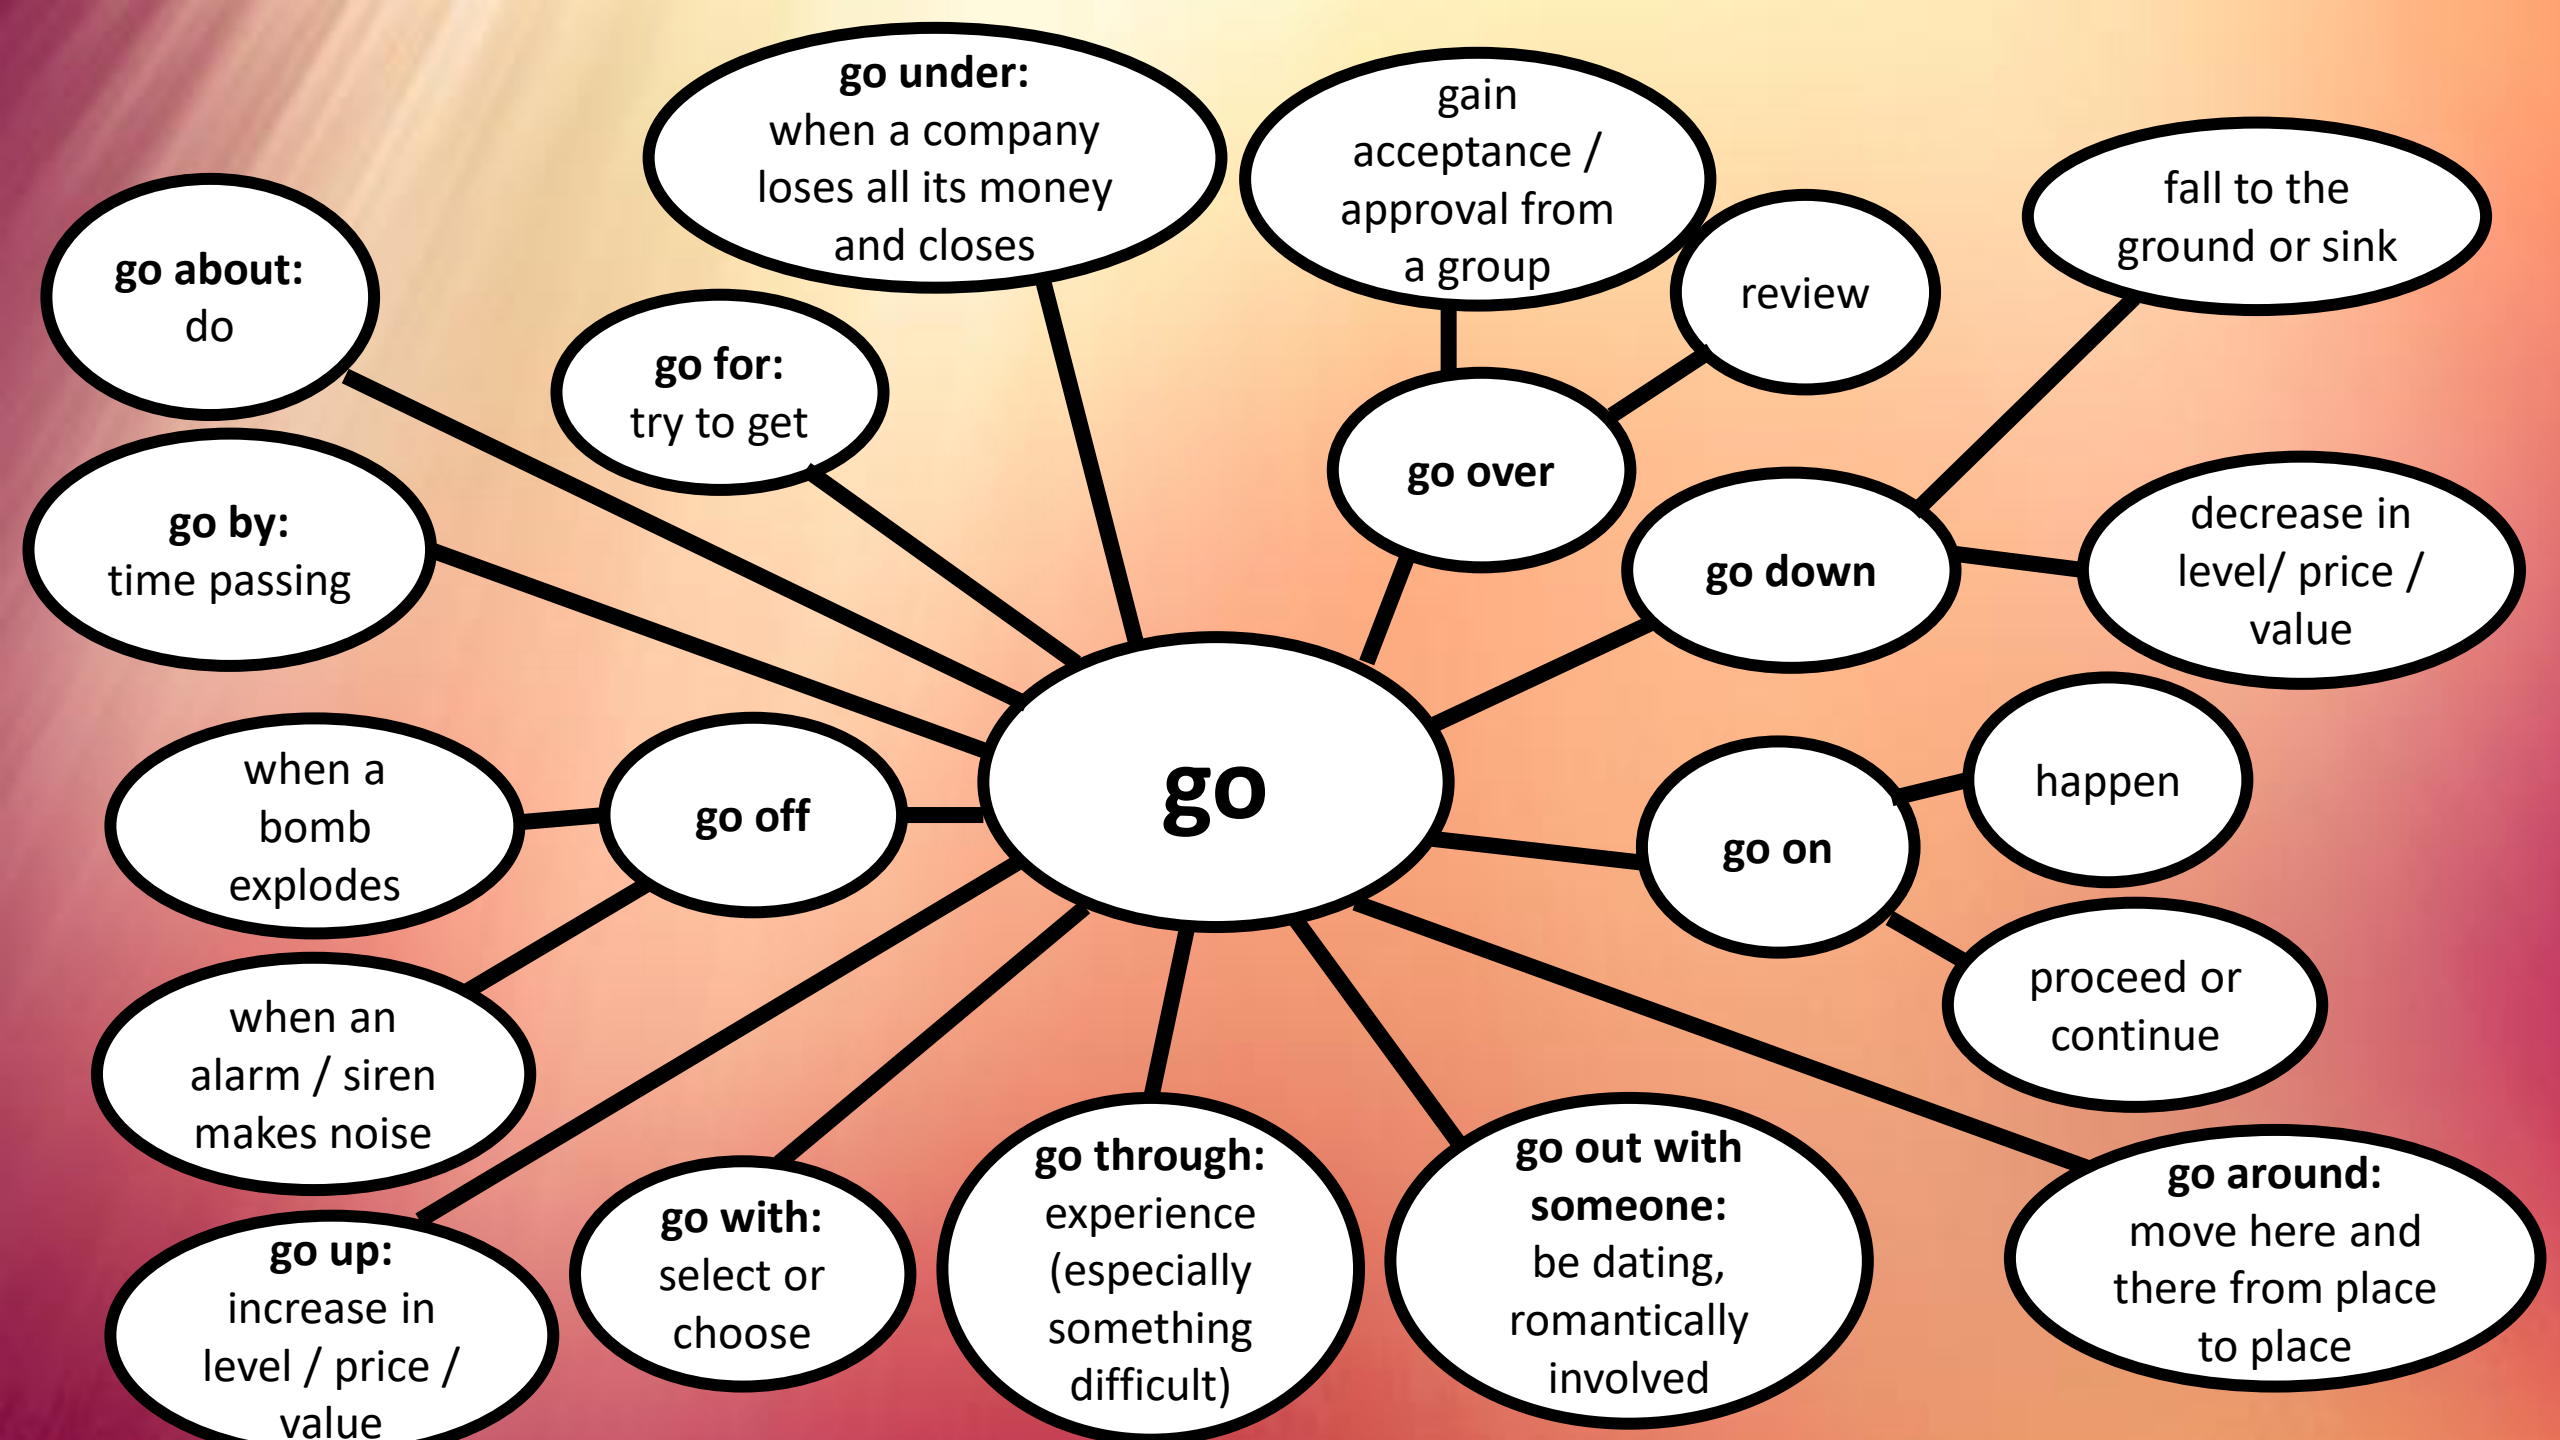

apart (x2)	back on	behind	down
for	out (x2)	off	through

1. I was six years old when my first baby tooth fell _____.
2. The gymnast unfortunately fell _____ during her performance.
3. I keep a few months' expenses in the bank to fall _____ just in case I lose my job.
4. The old wooden steps fell _____ when someone heavy stepped on them.
5. My boss was slow to answer my e-mails, and now I'm falling _____ in the project.
6. He's starting to fall _____ his brother's wife - that's not good.
7. In October, most of the leaves fall _____ the trees.
8. The deal fell _____ because the two companies couldn't agree on the terms.
9. I fell _____ with my sister years ago and we still don't talk to each other.
10. I'm so stressed out right now - if one more thing goes wrong, I'll fall _____.

along	around (x2)	away	away with
by	into (x2)	over	through to	up

1. I like my coworkers; we all get _____ well.
2. My roommate isn't a morning person; she never gets _____ before 11AM.
3. New York City has a great subway system that makes it easy to get _____.
4. My son got _____ his top-choice university.
5. I'm really getting _____ gardening these days; it's a fun hobby.
6. It took me two weeks to get _____ the flu.
7. During school breaks, my kids get _____ sleep late.
8. My dog got _____ from me at the park and I had to chase him.
9. This book is so boring; I'm having a hard time getting _____ it.
10. My classmate got _____ cheating because the teacher didn't see him.
11. Sorry it's so messy; I haven't gotten _____ to cleaning lately.
12. I don't really cook, but I get _____ with snacks and takeout.

go

go about:
do

go by:
time passing go for:

try to get

go under:
when a company
loses all its money
and closes

gain acceptance / approval from a group

go over

review

fall to the ground or sink

go down

decrease in level / price /
value

when a bomb explodes

go off

when an alarm / siren
makes noise

go up:
increase in level / price /
value

go with:
select or choose

go through:
experience (especially something difficult)

go out with someone:
be dating,
romantically
involved

go on happen

proceed or continue

go around:
move here and there from place to place

about	around	by	down
off	on	out with	over through	under	up	with

1. Before the test, I went _____ all the chapters we had studied recently.
2. He went _____ the room, introducing himself to lots of people.
3. I'm single. I haven't gone _____ anyone in quite a while.
4. There are lots of interesting ice cream flavors, but I'll go _____ the double chocolate.
5. After being fired from her job, she went _____ to start her own business.
6. My brother is stressed out; he's going _____ a tough time at work.
7. I was sleeping so soundly, I didn't even hear my alarm go _____!
8. I can't believe it's already December - the year has gone _____ so fast.
9. I'll need to move because my rent is going _____ by $400 next month.
10. She slipped on the ice and went _____ hard, breaking her wrist.
11. I'm not sure how to go _____ telling them the bad news.
12. I miss my favorite coffee shop - it went _____ during the pandemic.

give

give in:
stop resisting and agree to do what someone wants offer or provide for free reveal or make known

give away

give off: emit, send out (a smell, energy, feeling) distribute give out

stop functioning, become exhausted or have no more give up

stop trying / doing; abandon an effort

stop possessing something give back

return something to someone give time/money to charity away (x2)	back (x2)	in

off	out (x2)	up (x2)

1. My friends pressured me to get a tattoo and I finally gave _____.
2. Now that I'm successful, I want to find a way to give _____ to the community.
3. The bakery is giving _____ samples of their cakes, if you'd like to try them.
4. I called her ten times but she never answered, so I gave _____.
5. If you've already seen this movie, don't give _____ the ending!
6. The boss gave _____ safety equipment to the workers.
7. I've had this motorcycle for many years, and the engine finally gave _____.
8. We lent our lawn mower to the neighbors; they'll give it _____ tomorrow.
9. The candles in the church gave _____ a warm yellow light.
10. They had to give _____ their luxury car because they couldn't afford it anymore.

pick

pick up

take passengers in a vehicle

take something with your hand improve or increase

buy / gain

detect

continue after a break

get knowledge by learning/experience pick at pull with your fingers/nails

eat only little bits of food, as if not hungry choose or select pick out

identify something specific from a group pick on:

tease or bully someone

pick apart:
criticize; find fault

pick through:
search within a collection/mess of things

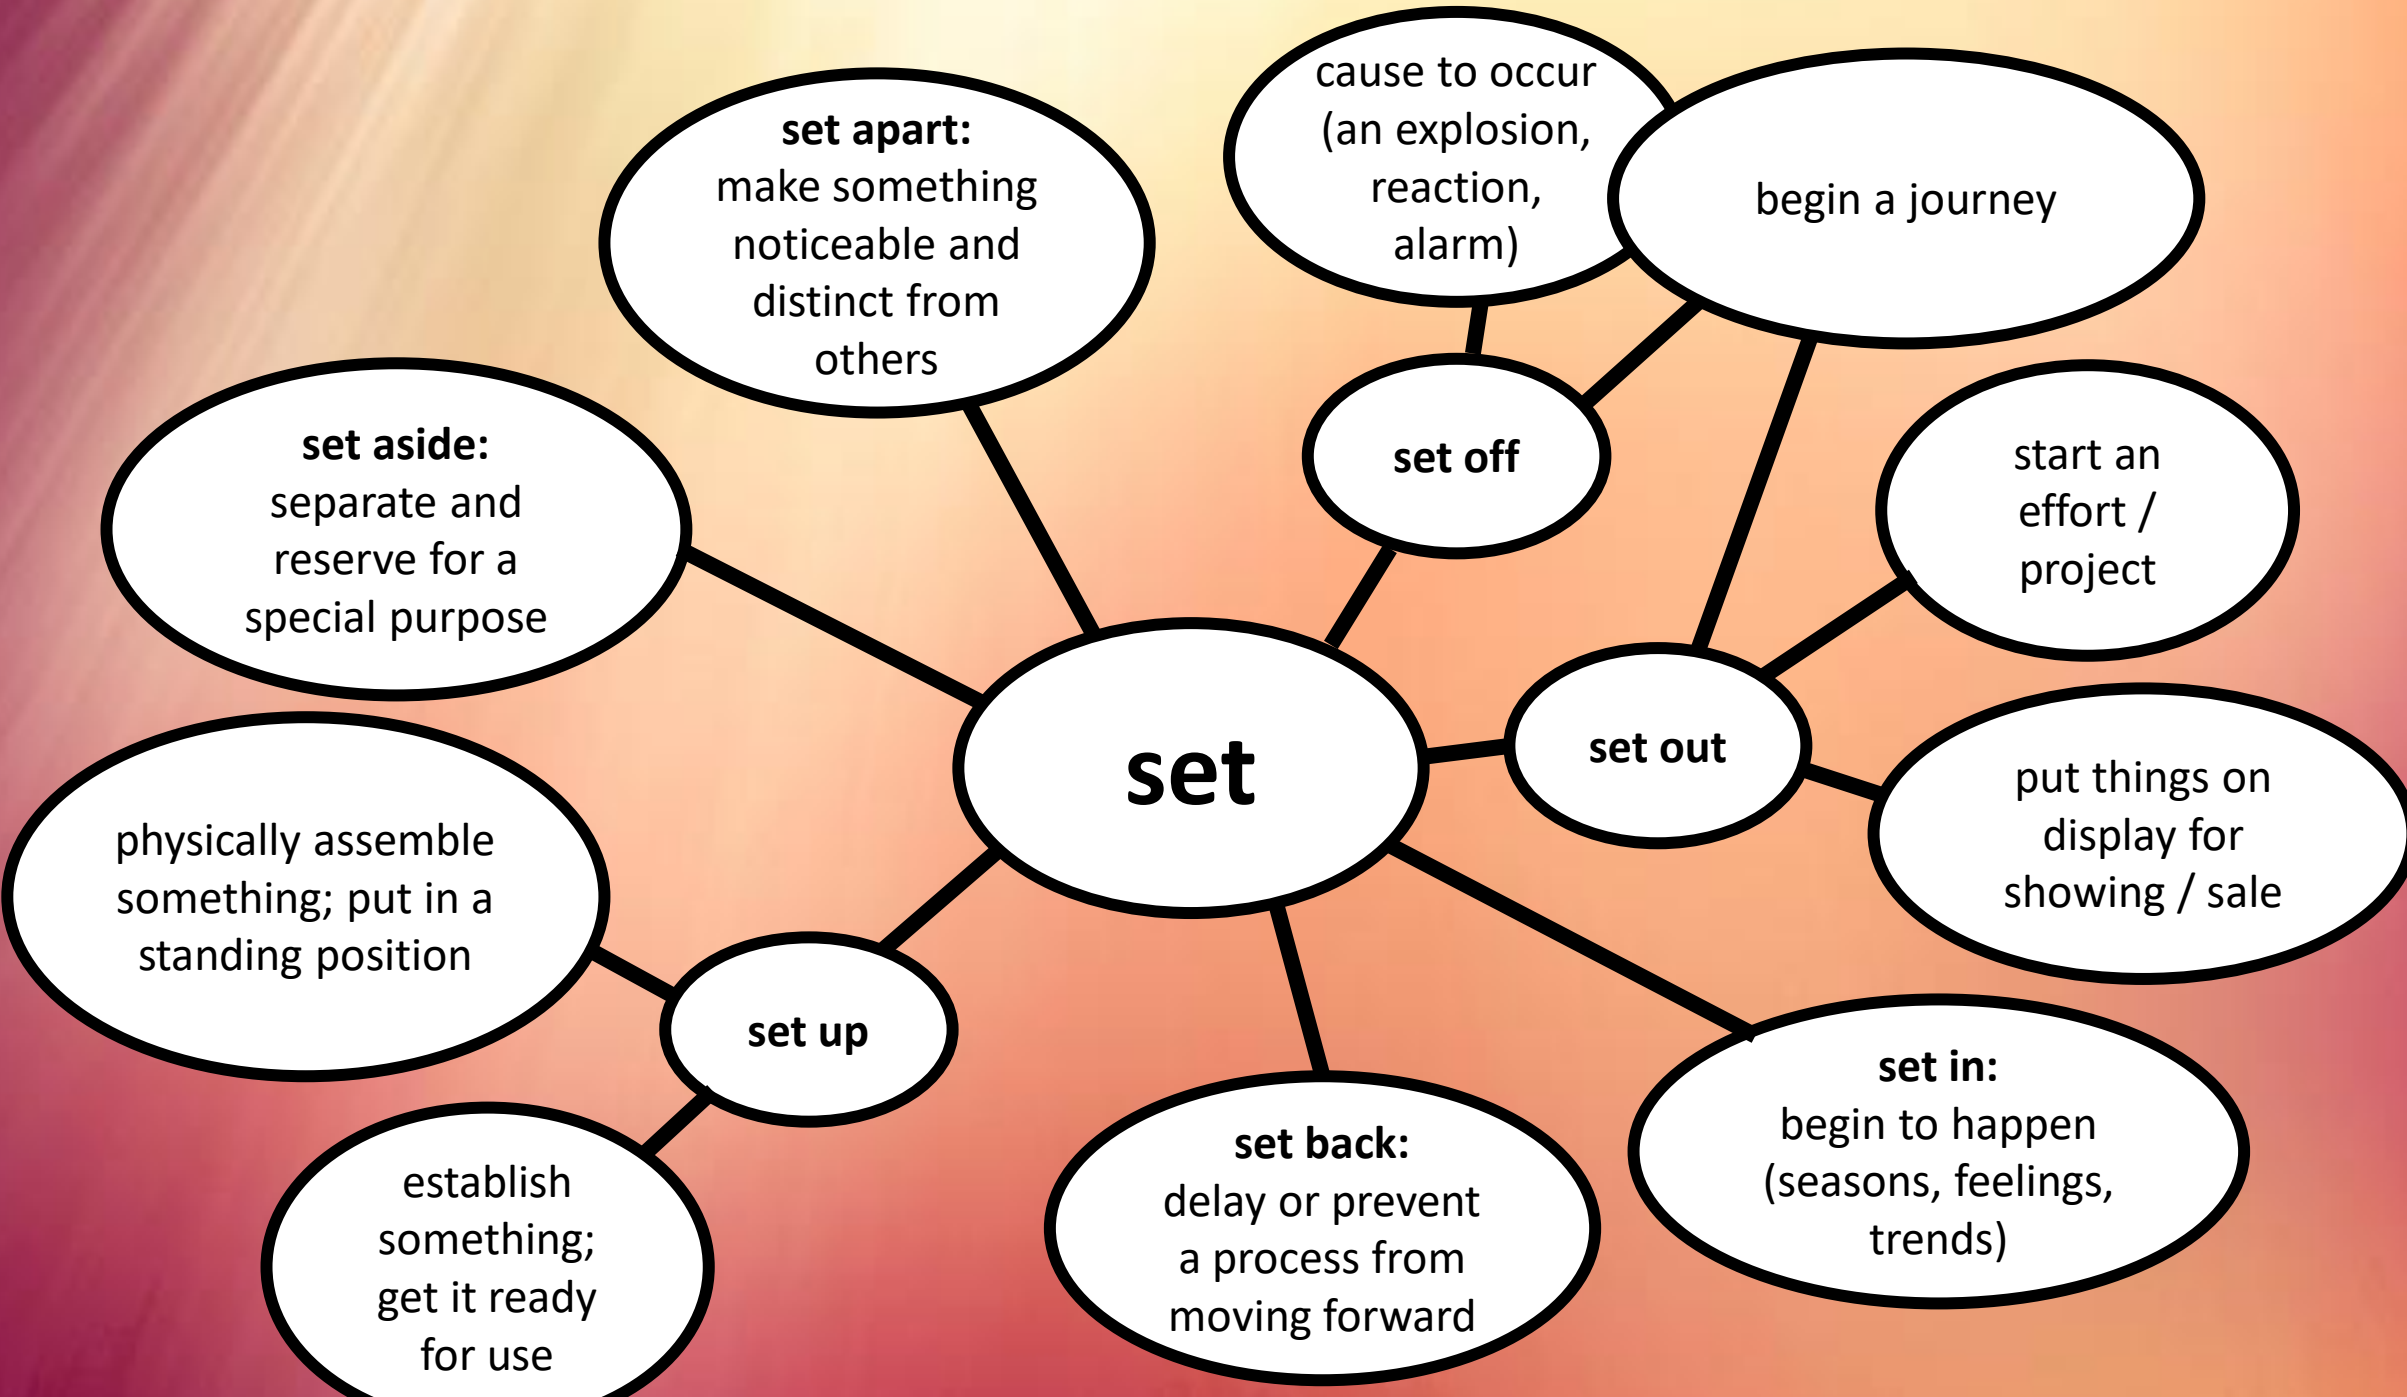

apart	at (x2)	on
out (x2)	through	up (x3)

1. Let's go inside - the wind is starting to pick _____ and it's getting cold.
2. If you pick _____ the scab, it won't heal properly.
3. The van will pick us _____ from the hotel and take us to the airport.
4. I don't know why I give you advice when you always pick _____ my ideas.
5. The victim picked _____ her attacker from the six candidates in the lineup.
6. As a child, he was often picked _____ for having a big nose.
7. I picked _____ the garbage to see if I accidentally threw out an important letter.
8. Children find it easy to pick _____ a new language.
9. Before I go to bed, I pick _____ the clothes I'll be wearing the next day.
10. She seemed distracted and preoccupied; she only picked _____ her dinner.

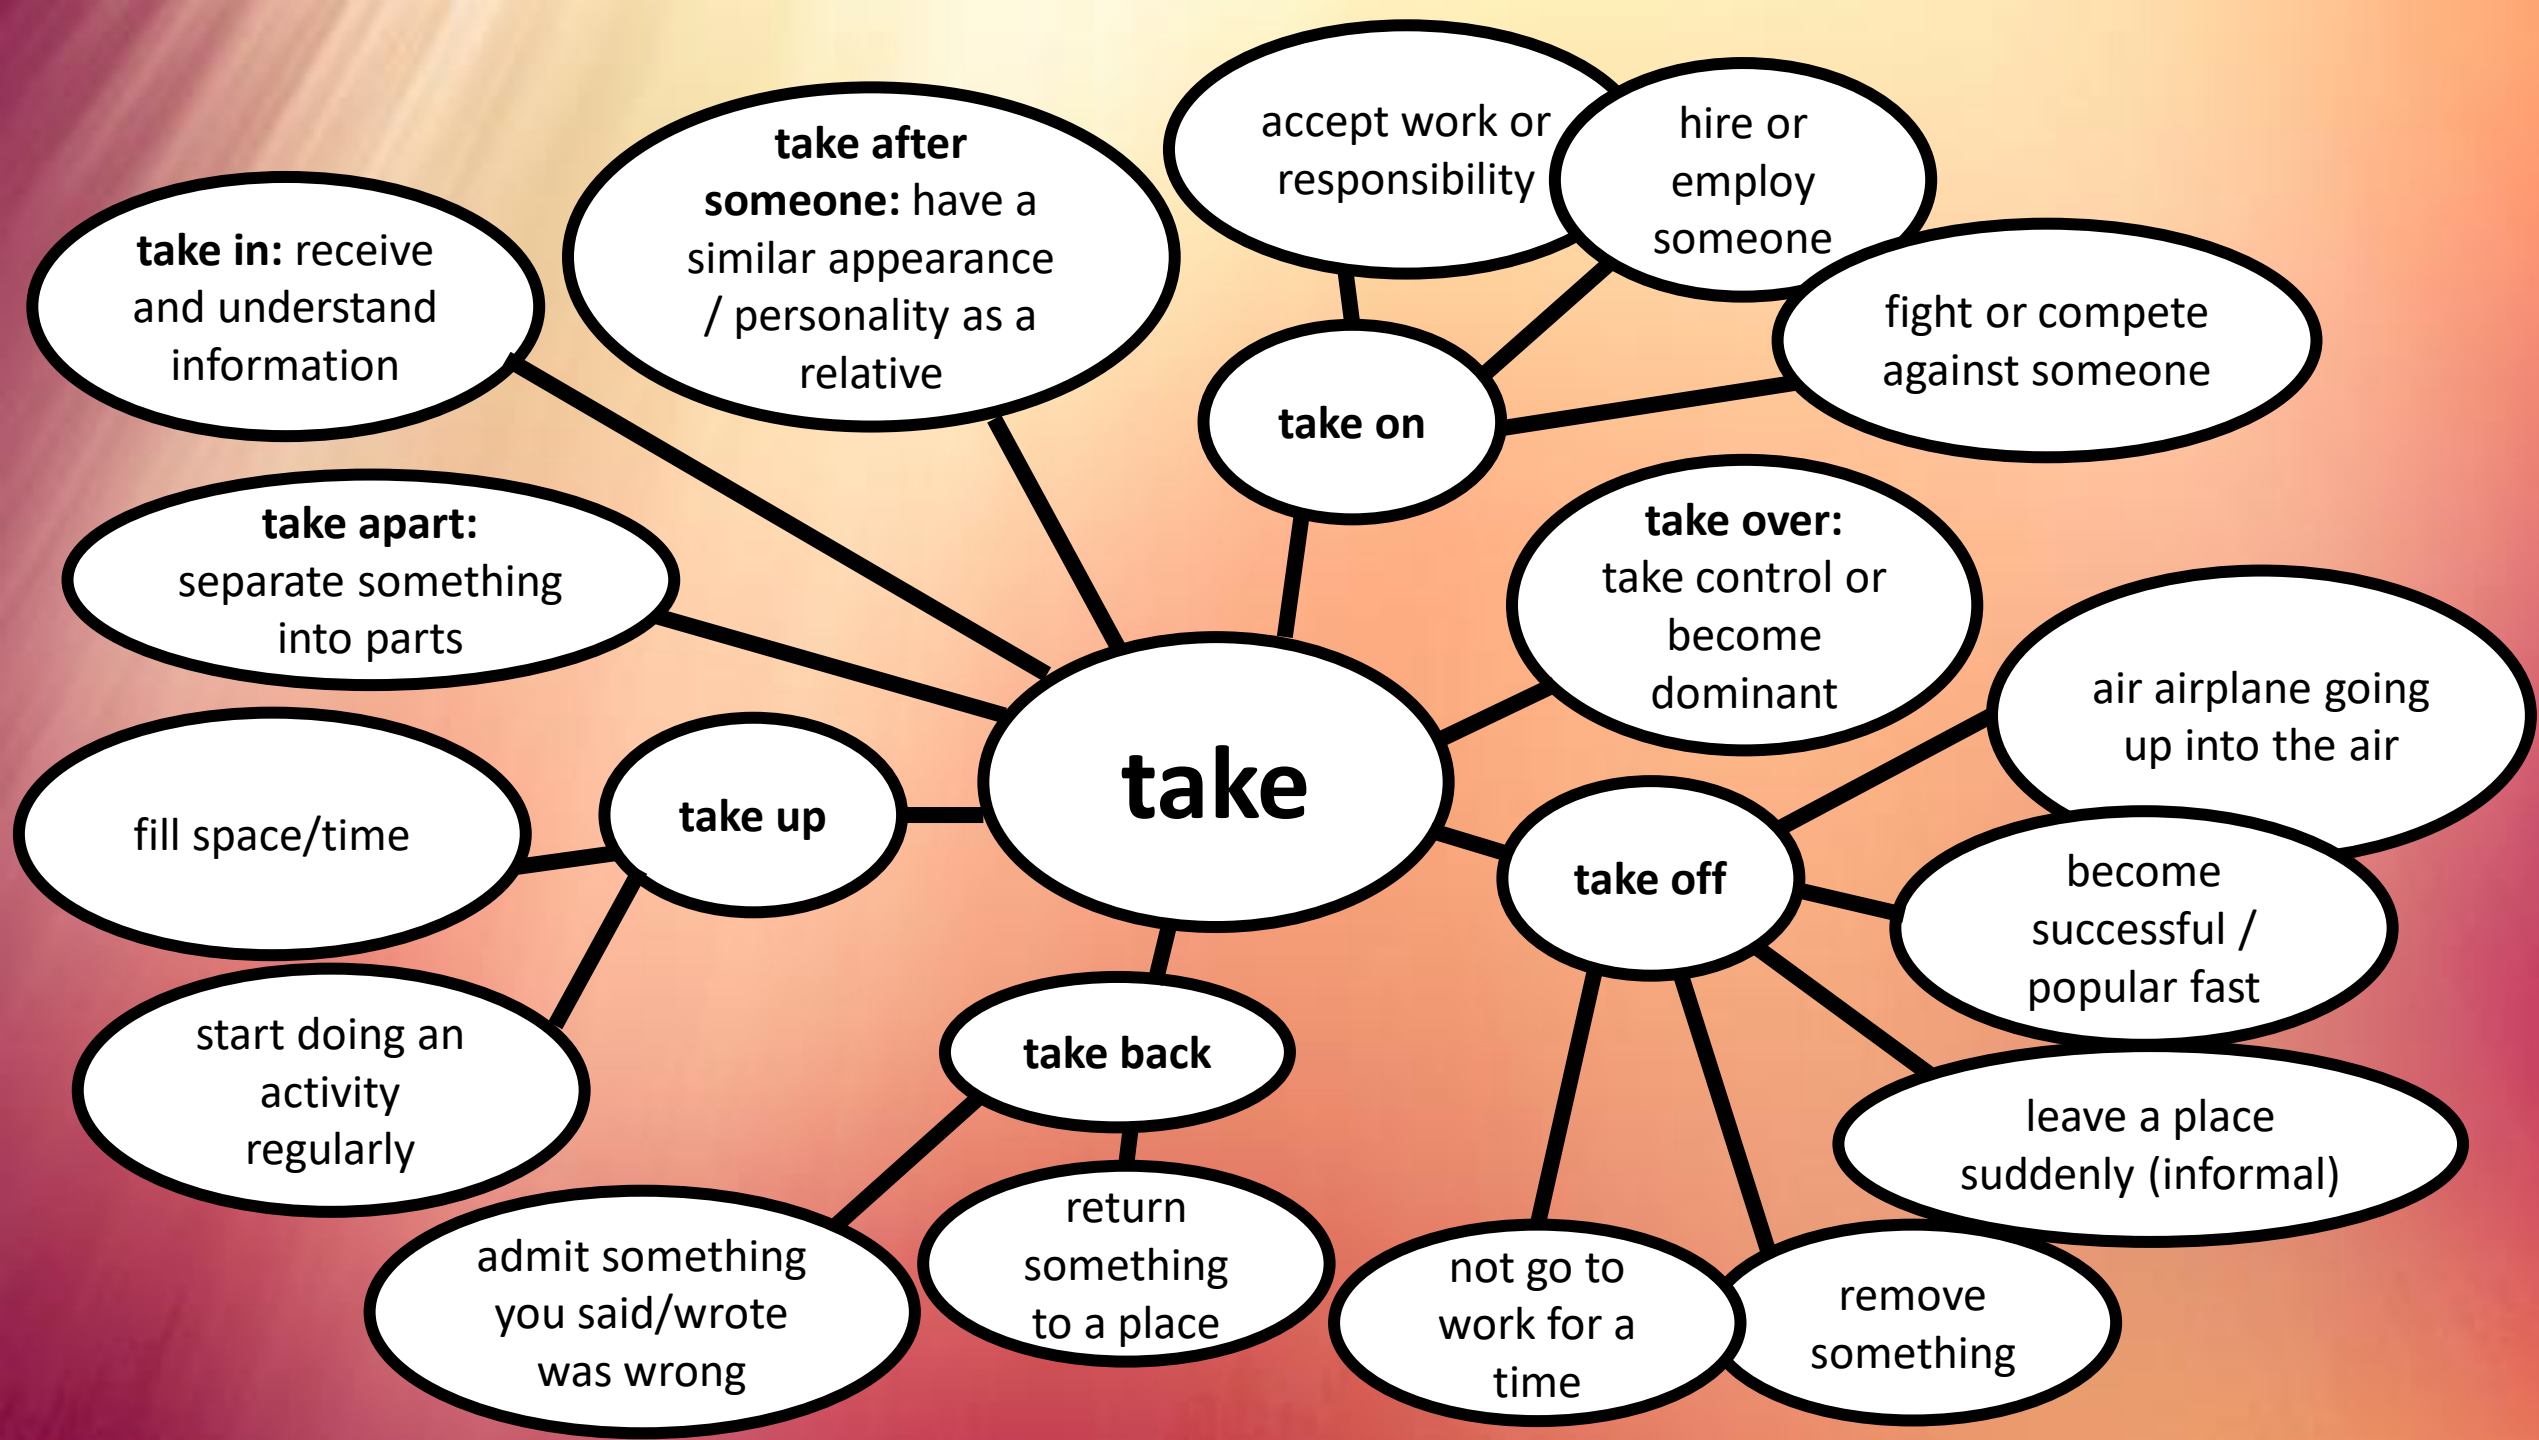

aside	back	down	forward	off (x2)
on	out (x2)	through	up with

1. After you're done with those toys, please put them _____ in the toy box.
2. I'll put _____ a possible budget for the project during the meeting.
3. He put _____ applying for the scholarship, and now it's too late.
4. The children's dance group will be putting _____ a recital this weekend.
5. We put _____ the campfire before we went to sleep.
6. First cook the vegetables, then put them _____ while you cook the chicken.
7. My neighbor's dog barks all day and I find it hard to put _____ the noise.
8. If you want to enter the contest, put your name _____ right here.
9. The weird smell in that restaurant put me _____, so I didn't eat there.
10. Are you sure you don't mind taking me to the airport? It's a long drive and I don't want to put you _____.
11. His abusive parents put him _____ a lot of pain.

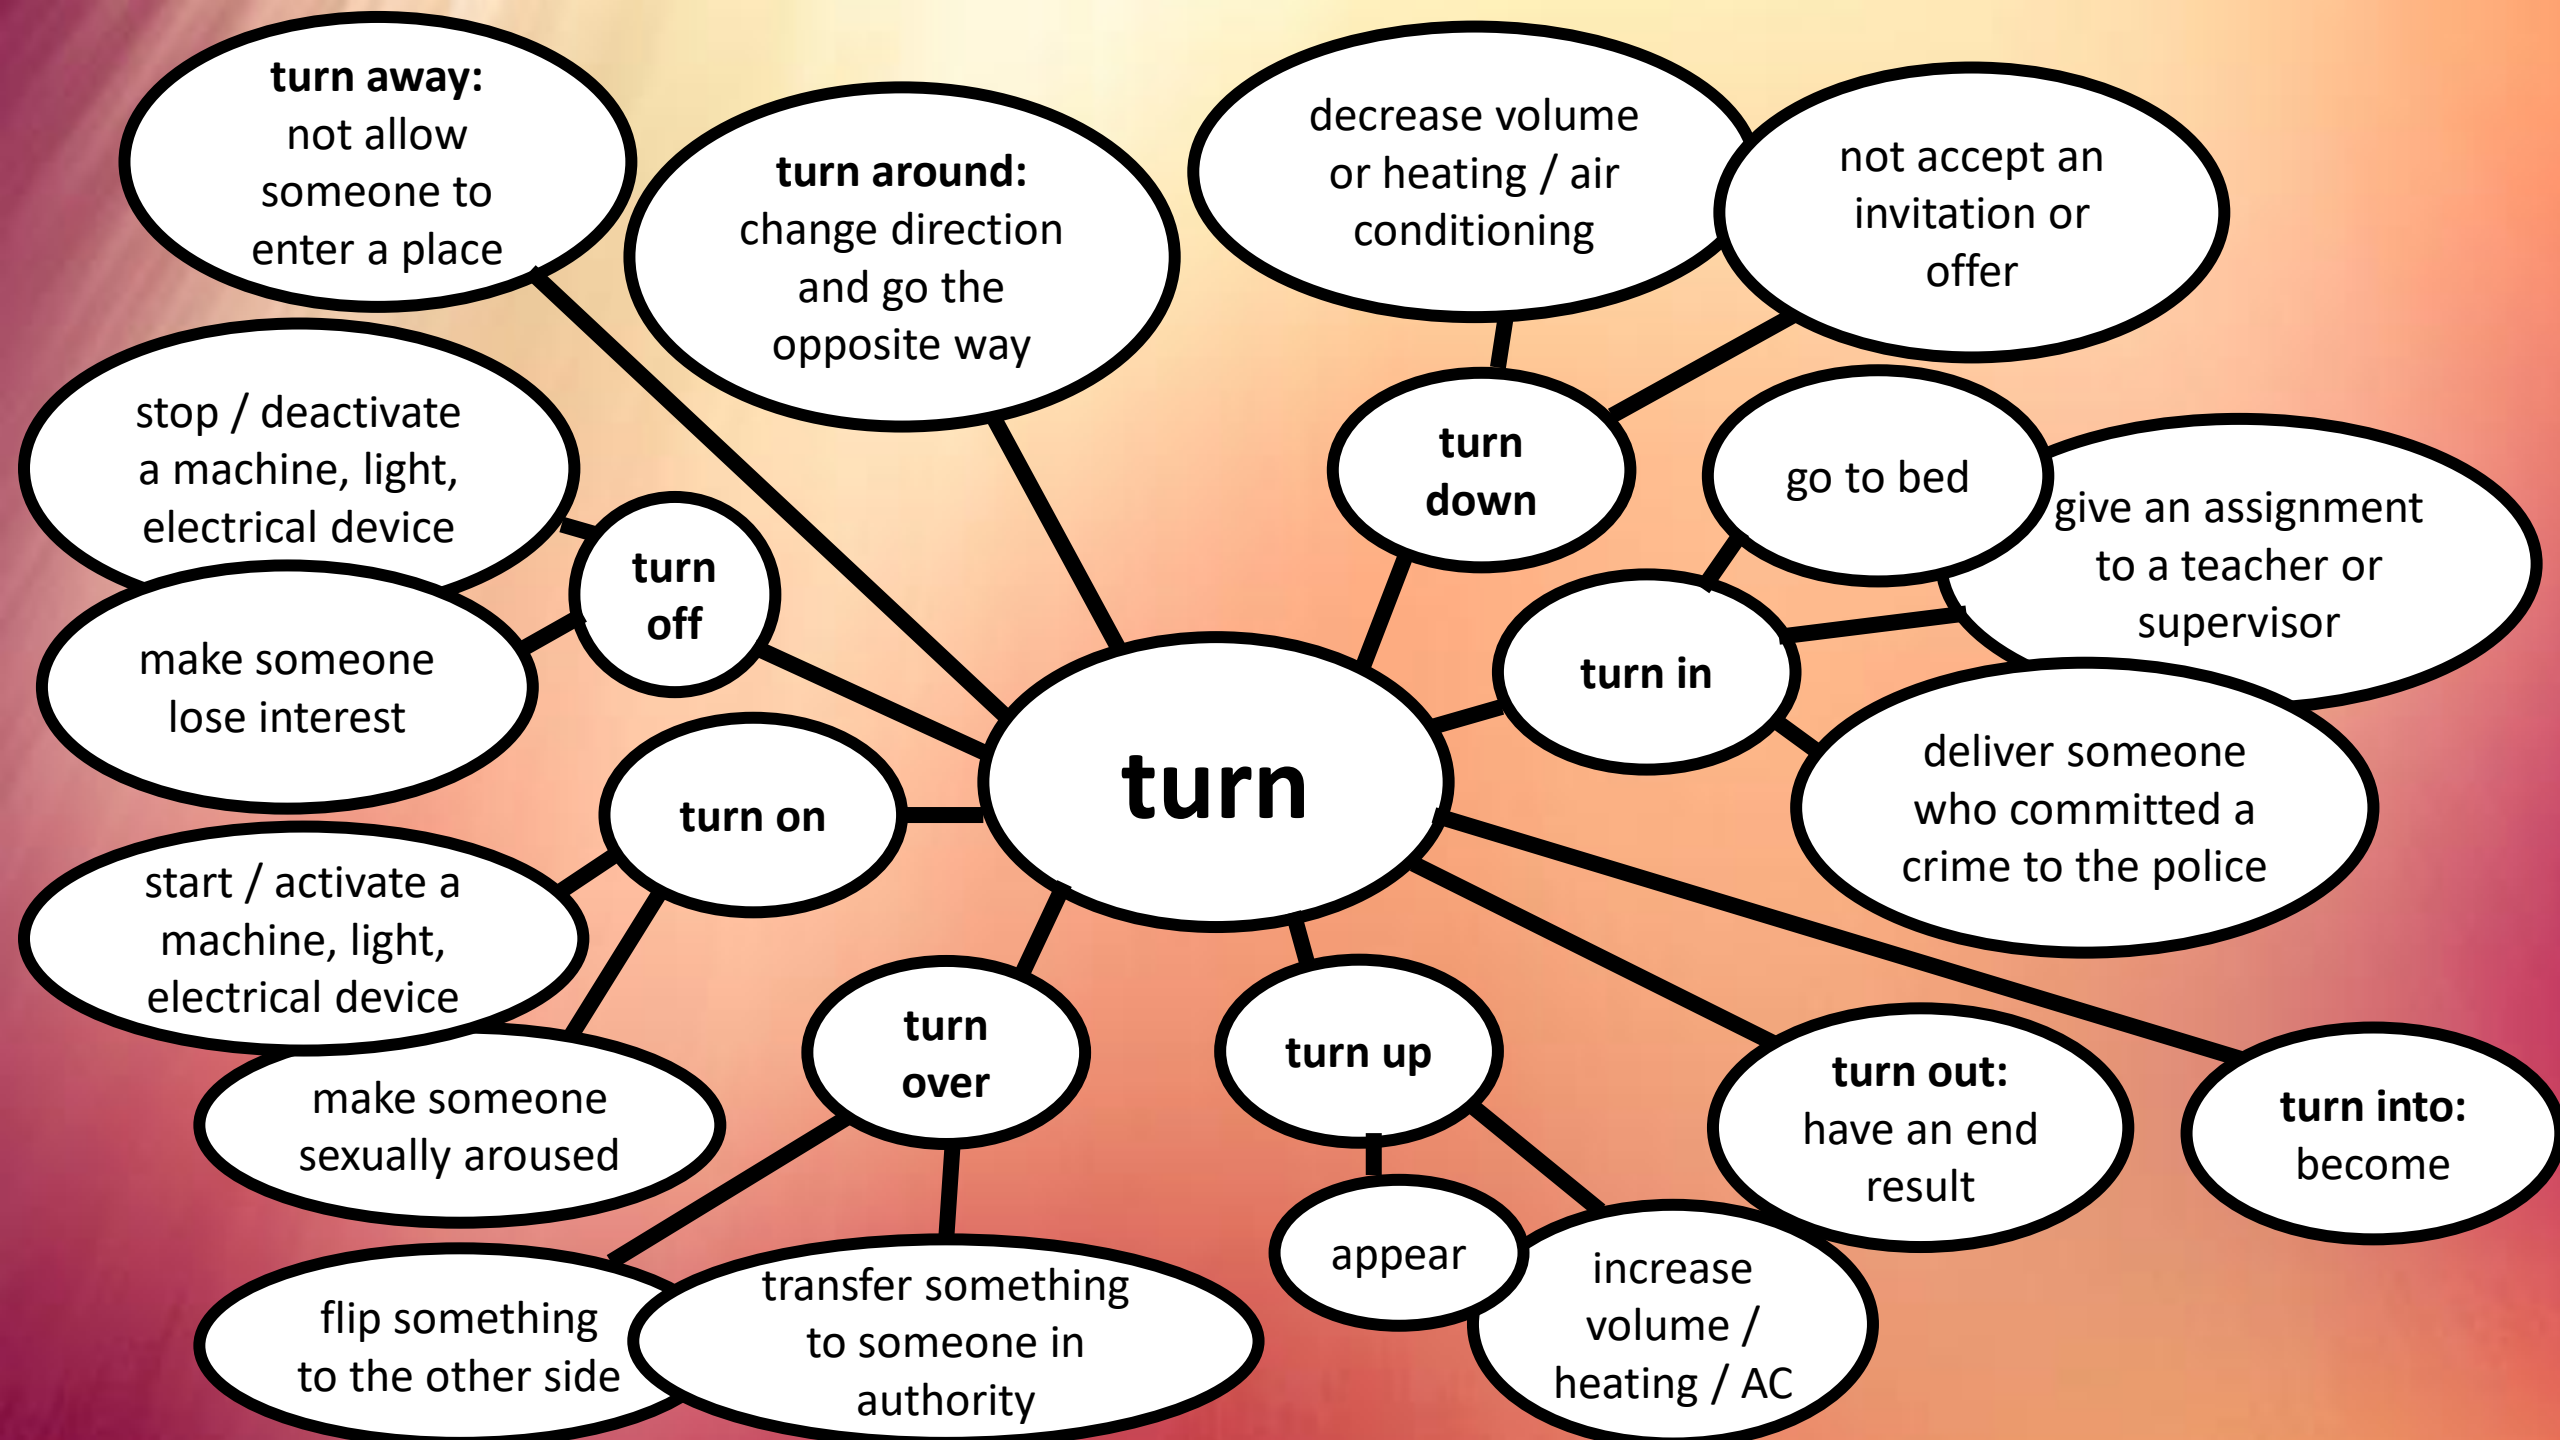

apart	aside	back	in
off	out (x2)	up (x2)

1. I just bought a new printer; can you help me set it _____?
2. The excellence of his work is what really sets him _____ from his competitors.
3. We found some problems with the house that set the renovations _____ two weeks.
4. Three months after moving to the city, regret set _____.
5. The controversial new law set _____ a wave of protests.
6. We should set _____ money for our kids' college education someday.
7. We set _____ on our hike early in the morning.
8. The workers set _____ the circus tent in less than an hour.
9. She set _____ her fruits and vegetables at the market and waited for customers.

after	apart	back	in
off (x4)	on	over	up (x2)

1. Everyone needs to fasten their seatbelts before the plane takes _____.
2. The pants were too small, so I took them _____ and exchanged them.
3. I always take _____ my shoes as soon as I get home.
4. I'm sorry I said you were stupid. I take it _____.
5. The coach spoke so fast that I couldn't take _____ all the instructions.
6. Jamie took three days _____ to go skiing in the mountains.
7. Last month an urgent project took _____ all my spare time.
8. She takes _____ her mother – they have the same curly brown hair.
9. The company takes _____ extra staff during the busy season.
10. I've recently taken _____ yoga; I go every week.
11. The technician is taking _____ the TV so that he can fix it.
12. This trend is taking _____ - thousands of people are doing it.
13. Germany took _____ several other countries during World War II.

around	away	down (x2)	in (x2)	into
off	on	out	over	up

1. We're going the wrong way. We need to turn _____.
2. Could you turn the music _____, please? It's too loud.
3. He asked her out to dinner, but she turned him _____.
4. My son needs to turn his research paper _____ by Thursday.
5. The manager finally turned _____ for the meeting – 45 minutes late.
6. Caterpillars turn _____ butterflies.
7. Time to turn _____ the TV – you've been watching for the past three hours!
8. We thought the project was going to fail, but everything turned _____ all right.
9. He says that girls with long legs really turn him _____.
10. You have to be 21 to enter this club; if you're 19 they'll turn you _____.
11. The police asked the company to turn _____ all their financial information.
12. I'm exhausted – I'm going to turn _____ early tonight.

QUIZ ANSWERS

BREAK

1. Someone broke into our house during our vacation.
2. You got promoted – let's break out the champagne!
3. I finally managed to break through my limiting beliefs.
4. My car broke down and couldn't be repaired.
5. She recently broke up with her boyfriend of 2 years.
6. One of the legs broke off of my favorite chair.
7. He broke up the chocolate bar for the kids.
8. I use makeup whenever my forehead breaks out.
9. One runner broke away from the pack and took the lead.
10. There's a hole in the fence and the dogs are breaking out!

BRING

1. All this rainy weather is really bringing me down.
2. The protesters want to bring about changes in the laws.
3. They have busy lives, working full-time and bringing up five children.
4. We need to bring the library books back next week.
5. Please bring the groceries in from the car.
6. Don't bring up politics at dinner; it'll cause an argument.
7. The rebels are trying to bring down the country's government.
8. That blue shirt really brings out the color of your eyes.
9. Wow, this song really brings me back to high school!
10. I do freelance work to bring in a little extra income.

COME

1. He tries to hide his anger, but it comes through in his tone of voice.
2. My skating skills are really coming along now that I'm taking classes.
3. We're going to the bar, do you want to come along?
4. The cat is hiding under the couch and doesn't want to come out.
5. Something came up and I had to reschedule the meeting.
6. We invited a friend to come over and watch the game at our house.
7. I came across someone's lost wallet in the church parking lot.
8. My friends really came through by bringing me meals after my surgery.
9. In that city, people often come up to me asking for money.
10. It was nice to come back to my own country after a long, tiring trip.
11. Come on, we're going to be late!
12. I can't wait for the next book in the series to come out.

FALL

1. I was six years old when my first baby tooth fell out.
2. The gymnast unfortunately fell down during her performance.
3. I keep a few months' expenses in the bank to fall back on just in case I lose my job.
4. The old wooden steps fell apart when someone heavy stepped on them.
5. My boss was slow to answer my e-mails, and now I'm falling behind in the project.
6. He's starting to fall for his brother's wife - that's not good.
7. In October, most of the leaves fall off the trees.
8. The deal fell through because the two companies couldn't agree on the terms.
9. I fell out with my sister years ago and we still don't talk to each other.
10. I'm so stressed out right now - if one more thing goes wrong, I'll fall apart.

GET

1. I like my coworkers; we all get along well.
2. My roommate isn't a morning person; she never gets up before 11AM.
3. New York City has a great subway system that makes it easy to get around.
4. My son got into his top-choice university.
5. I'm really getting into gardening these days; it's a fun hobby.
6. It took me two weeks to get over the flu.
7. During school breaks, my kids get to sleep late.
8. My dog got away from me at the park and I had to chase him.
9. This book is so boring; I'm having a hard time getting through it.
10. My classmate got away with cheating because the teacher didn't see him.
11. Sorry it's so messy; I haven't gotten around to cleaning lately.
12. I don't really cook, but I get by with snacks and takeout.

GO

1. Before the test, I went over all the chapters we had studied recently.
2. He went around the room, introducing himself to lots of people.
3. I'm single. I haven't gone out with anyone in quite a while.
4. There are lots of interesting ice cream flavors, but I'll go with the double chocolate.
5. After being fired from her job, she went on to start her own business.
6. My brother is stressed out; he's going through a tough time at work.
7. I was sleeping so soundly, I didn't even hear my alarm go off!
8. I can't believe it's already December - the year has gone by so fast.
9. I'll need to move because my rent is going up by $400 next month.
10. She slipped on the ice and went down hard, breaking her wrist.
11. I'm not sure how to go about telling them the bad news.
12. I miss my favorite coffee shop - it went under during the pandemic.

GIVE

1. My friends pressured me to get a tattoo and I finally gave in.
2. Now that I'm successful, I want to find a way to give back to the community.
3. The bakery is giving away samples of their cakes, if you'd like to try them.
4. I called her ten times but she never answered, so I gave up.
5. If you've already seen this movie, don't give away the ending!
6. The boss gave out safety equipment to the workers.
7. I've had this motorcycle for many years, and the engine finally gave out.
8. We lent our lawn mower to the neighbors; they'll give it back tomorrow.
9. The candles in the church gave off a warm yellow light.
10. They had to give up their luxury car because they couldn't afford it anymore.

PICK

1. Let's go inside - the wind is starting to pick up and it's getting cold.
2. If you pick at the scab, it won't heal properly.
3. The van will pick us up from the hotel and take us to the airport.
4. I don't know why I give you advice when you always pick apart my ideas.
5. The victim picked out her attacker from the six candidates in the lineup.
6. As a child, he was often picked on for having a big nose.
7. I picked through the garbage to see if I accidentally threw out an important letter.
8. Children find it easy to pick up a new language.
9. Before I go to bed, I pick out the clothes I'll be wearing the next day.
10. She seemed distracted and preoccupied; she only picked at her dinner.

PUT

1. After you're done with those toys, please put them back in the toy box.
2. I'll put forward a possible budget for the project during the meeting.
3. He put off applying for the scholarship, and now it's too late.
4. The children's dance group will be putting on a recital this weekend.
5. We put out the campfire before we went to sleep.
6. First cook the vegetables, then put them aside while you cook the chicken.
7. My neighbor's dog barks all day and I find it hard to put up with the noise.
8. If you want to enter the contest, put your name down right here.
9. The weird smell in that restaurant put me off, so I didn't eat there.
10. Are you sure you don't mind taking me to the airport? It's a long drive and I don't want to put you out.
11. His abusive parents put him through a lot of pain.

SET

1. I just bought a new printer; can you help me set it up?
2. The excellence of his work is what really sets him apart from his competitors.
3. We found some problems with the house that set the renovations back two weeks.
4. Three months after moving to the city, regret set in.
5. The controversial new law set off a wave of protests.
6. We should set aside money for our kids' college education someday.
7. We set out on our hike early in the morning.
8. The workers set up the circus tent in less than an hour.
9. She set out her fruits and vegetables at the market and waited for customers.

TAKE

1. Everyone needs to fasten their seatbelts before the plane takes off.
2. The pants were too small, so I took them back and exchanged them.
3. I always take off my shoes as soon as I get home.
4. I'm sorry I said you were stupid. I take it back.
5. The coach spoke so fast that I couldn't take in all the instructions.
6. Jamie took three days off to go skiing in the mountains.
7. Last month an urgent project took up all my spare time.
8. She takes after her mother – they have the same curly brown hair.
9. The company takes on extra staff during the busy season.
10. I've recently taken up yoga; I go every week.
11. The technician is taking apart the TV so that he can fix it.
12. This trend is taking off - thousands of people are doing it.
13. Germany took over several other countries during World War II.

TURN

1. We're going the wrong way. We need to turn around.
2. Could you turn the music down, please? It's too loud.
3. He asked her out to dinner, but she turned him down.
4. My son needs to turn his research paper in by Thursday.
5. The manager finally turned up for the meeting – 45 minutes late.
6. Caterpillars turn into butterflies.
7. Time to turn off the TV – you've been watching for the past three hours!
8. We thought the project was going to fail, but everything turned out all right.
9. He says that girls with long legs really turn him on.
10. You have to be 21 to enter this club; if you're 19 they'll turn you away.
11. The police asked the company to turn over all their financial information.
12. I'm exhausted – I'm going to turn in early tonight.

Phrasal Verbs in Conversation Course

Learn 500
common phrasal verbs
in spoken English

Continue learning
in our course!